Foreword

With warm spirit, we of McEvoy and Willingham High Schools have observed and participated in Macon's ceaseless expansion and development of which we are proud to be a part. As Macon is growing, we are growing in our desire to become the best possible citizens through the education afforded us.

We, the annual staff, sincerely hope that you will receive much pleasure from our first annual as you find yourself a part of "A Changing Macon."

Dedication

To our ever helpful and understanding teacher, who has rendered every service possible to uphold the spirit of McEvoy High School; to one who is ever willing to lend a sympathetic ear to all her students; to one who has worked without ceasing for our educational improvement, we the Senior Class of 1959 proudly present this first edition of "The Ramscott" to our very own -

Mrs. Margaret P. Davis

In appreciation for his nineteen years of educational leadership and his devotion to his work, we, the Junior Class of Willingham High School, proudly dedicate this annual to our principal, S. L. Newberry.

We are privileged to have a man with his excellent background and leadership abilities to direct the administration of Willingham High School from its beginning. We feel that those who follow us will have the same appreciation for his leadership.

In Memoriam

DR. MARK A. SMITH

On October 23, 1958, with the passing of Dr. Mark A. Smith - Macon, the state of Georgia and the nation lost one of the most prominent educators of this century. Although in failing health for a year, he had carried on his work as superintendent of Bibb County Schools, a position he had held since 1941.

Dr. Smith attended Clemson College, Columbia University, University of Georgia, and Emory University. He received a doctor of education degree from Clemson and the honorary degree of Doctor of Law from Mercer University.

The Bibb County Superintendent was well known for his contributions to the Georgia Education Association, Parent-Teacher Association, National Education Association, Kiwanis International, National Beta Club and many other organizations.

Dr. Smith won national recognition for economy in school construction and operation, especially during the strenuous war years. Among the last schools he helped to build were Margaret McEvoy and A. R. Willingham.

To the memory of Dr. Smith we respectfully dedicate this page of the first McEvoy-Willingham Annual.

Dear Students:

This annual has captured for you, the students of Willingham High School, a recording which will grow more and more valuable through the years. It is a kaleidoscope of your feelings, your activities, friends, your sense of humor, and most important your pride in the new school which you are striving successfully to build.

I congratulate you, the Editorial and Business Staffs, your advisors, and the Junior Class on a splendid performance in making this fine book available to your classmates.

Sincerely,

S. L. Newberry

Dear Students:

High school days are probably the most important time in one's life. You will long cherish the friendships that you made at McEvoy. You will glance back often to the many activities that you participated in at McEvoy. All will be fond memories.

In this yearbook may you place pictures that will enhance forever the memories of your high school days. In years to come may you often open this book and renew through pictures the old friendships and memories.

Best of luck to each and every one of you in whatever endeavor you may undertake in life.

Ever,

William Brake

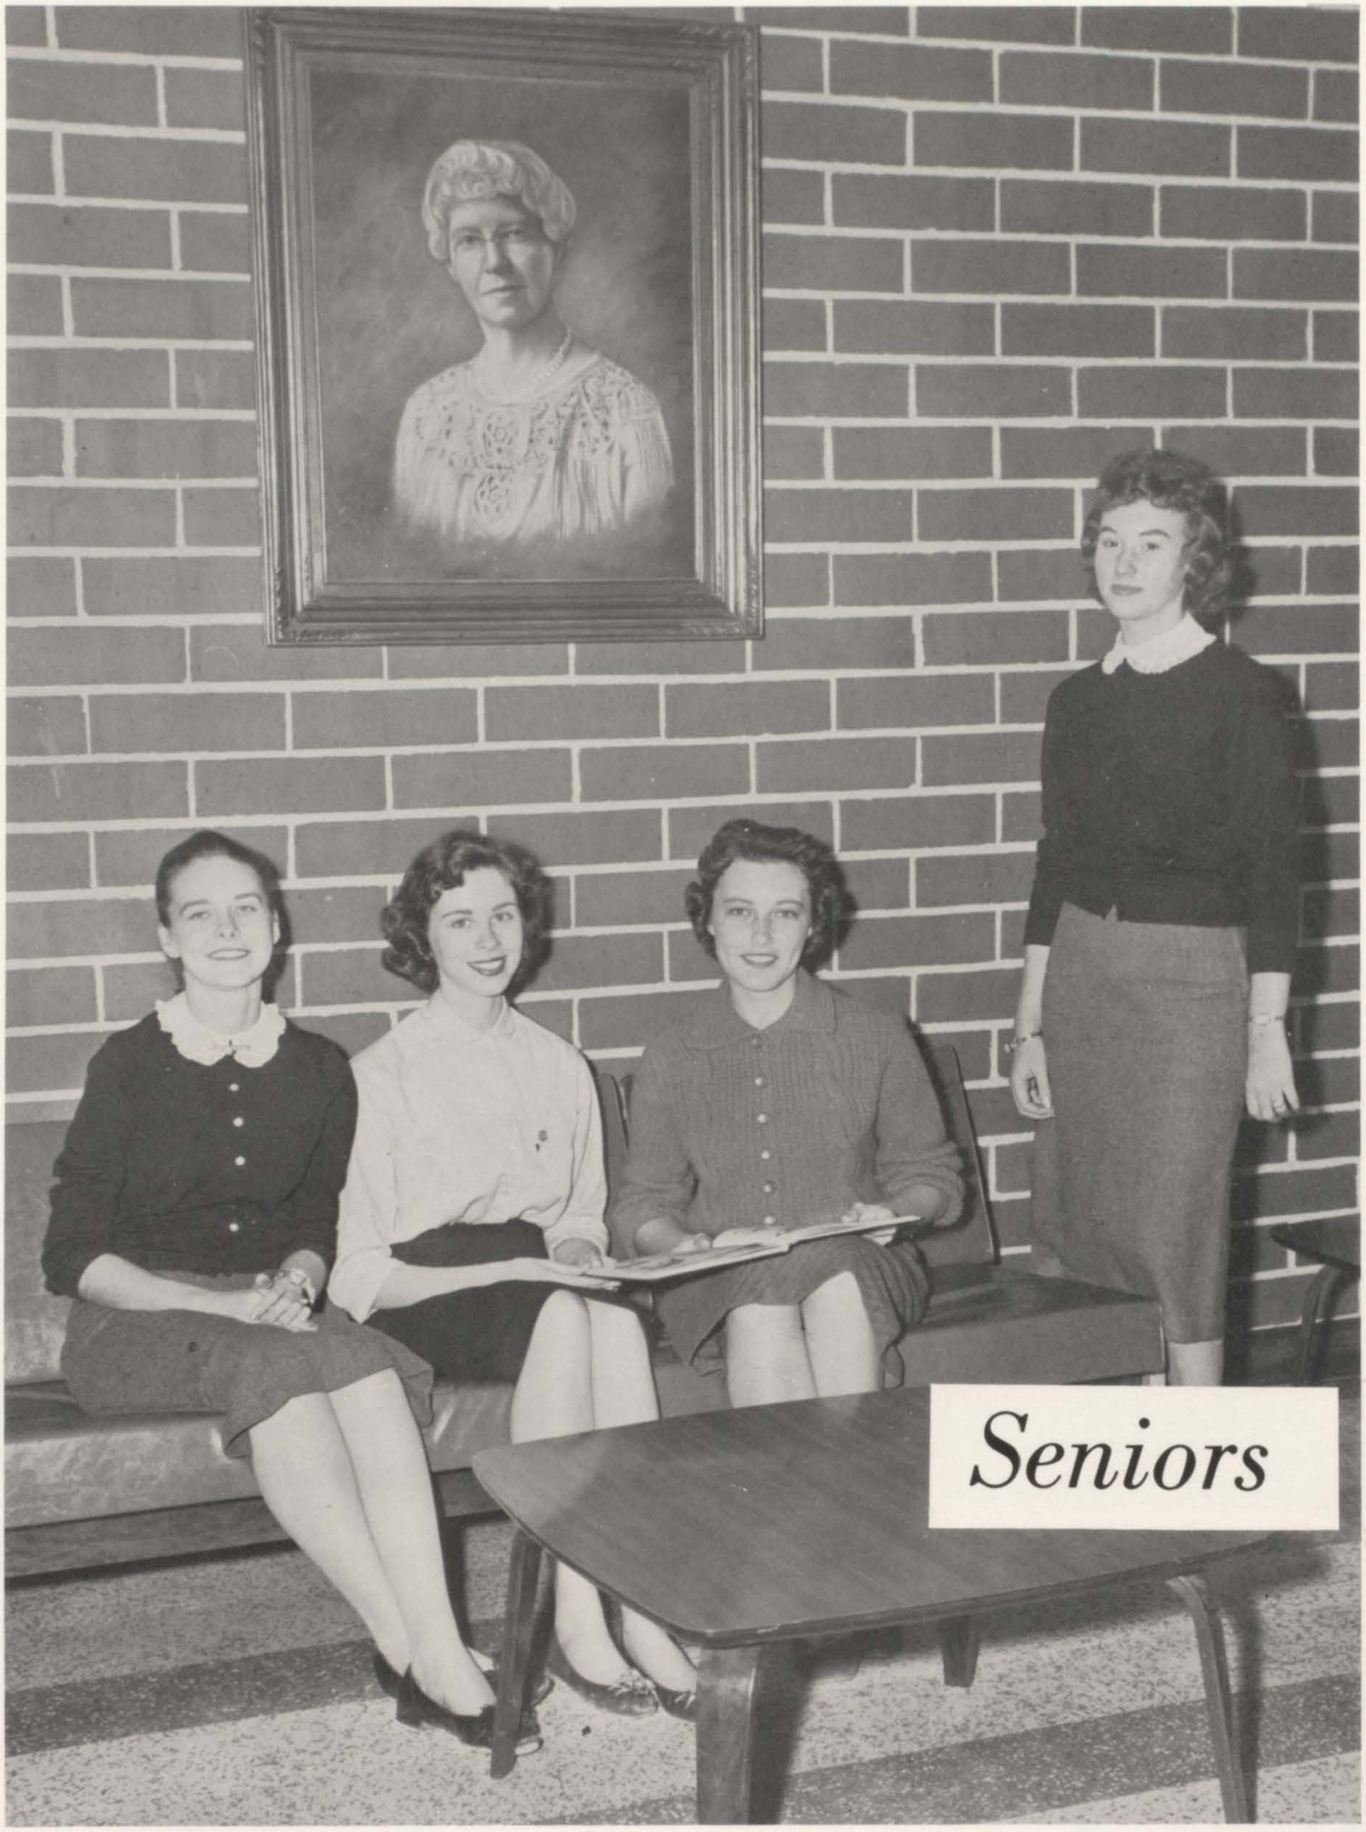
Seniors



SENIOR OFFICERS - Peggy Jane Stephens, Treasurer; Linda Williams, Secretary; Glenda Day, President; and Patricia Williams, Vice President.

We, the first senior class of Margaret McEvoy, are beginning the experience of a life-long dream.

From our school that has given us opportunities to develop the ability to accept responsibilities, we have learned the importance of honesty, sincerity, and friendliness.

We realize that the future of America depends to a large extent upon the seniors throughout the country. It is for this reason that we, as seniors, pledge our loyalty to you, Margaret McEvoy High School, which has so carefully prepared us to meet the world with our heads up.

This, the junior year, is one of preparation. The members of this class are filled with a sense of achievement, of past accomplishments, and anticipation for the challenges of the senior year.

A junior has traveled the universal road that all must take. From uncertain freshmen, they have become mature young adults and are glimpsing new and widening horizons. They have accomplished much and more is to be done. The work of preparation is almost finished; the juniors are emerging into the world of greater privileges and responsibilities.

Education is within our grasp. Tomorrow will be ours, and we hope to be ready to receive it.

Sophomores

WE, the sophomore classes of McEvoy and Willingham High Schools, are approaching the mid-way point of our high school years. In many ways the best is yet to come. We have the chance of making an honorable record for ourselves and our school. In the ensuing pages you, the reader, will meet the members of this year's sophomore class. We shall strive in the years ahead to become the type leaders which will make our schools the very best.

Freshmen

We, the freshman classes of McEvoy and Willingham, are entering the first phases of our high school career. We look forward to our days of preparation, days which may determine the kind of future citizens that we shall become. We are eager to accept our responsibilities in the coming high school years. We will gladly do our part to make our schools function efficiently. We will strive to make these next years prosperous and pleasant.

THANKFULNESS

SEATED: Gail McKinley, Treasurer; Sandra Stubbs, President; Nancy Lewis, Vice President; Marc Bowen, Secretary; Edward Foster, Treasurer; Pete Gaines, President; and Sharon Quinn, Secretary. Sub-Freshman Officers.

Sub-Freshmen

As sub-freshmen we shall strive to move forward toward our established goals. We shall take full advantage of our opportunities - to grow as individuals and to learn by effectively using the facilities provided by our schools. Through our own efforts, those of our teachers, and association with our fellow students, we hope to achieve scholastic recognition.

The possibility for our success is enlarging greatly because of the rapid growth of our city. The educational system must grow with Macon so that everyone can have the opportunity for a good education. The eighth graders are the future leaders of Macon, so we will endeavor to prepare ourselves to accept the responsibilities of citizenship.

McEvoy-Willingham Music Program

The music program of McEvoy and Willingham is a large one. The McEvoy Girls' Band, which is the only girls' band in the South, is working diligently under the direction of Miss Barbara Reeves. The Willingham Band, under the direction of Mr. James Littlefield, is already a full-fledged organization. The majorettes are considered a part of both bands. Mr. L. Wilcox conducts the McEvoy-Willingham orchestra which is composed of members from both schools.

Mrs. Ernestine Lewis directs the McEvoy Chorus. The Mellodetts, a more advanced group of singers from the chorus, meets after school for practice and this group sings for various community organizations. The Willingham Male Chorus is under the direction of Mr. James Littlefield, and Mr. William Bell.

The Schools' music programs are not limited to singing or playing an instrument. The McEvoy Music Club offers to all music lovers a chance to participate in music appreciation.

Homecoming

A festive parade started the Willingham Homecoming Parade November 7. Students entered floats and decorated cars. First prize winner was McEvoy Science Club; second and third prizes went to McEvoy Seniors and the W-M Spanish Club respectively. A spirited Pep Rally followed at the City Auditorium.

Patricia Moore, the Homecoming Queen, and her Court were presented at the Homecoming Game. The Moultrie Packers defeated the Rams 28-0. Although they were not victors, the Rams surpassed Moultrie in statistics.

The evening was concluded with a Sock Hop at the Willingham gym. After the crowning of the Queen, the Court and their escorts were introduced in a leadout.

Princess Speaks . . .

Princess Catherine Caradja of Rumania was presented by the Beta Club. She came because, as she said: "The only real way I can be of service to my country is to tell those in the free world about the conditions existing behind the Iron Curtain and to encourage others to defend their precious freedom."

Princess Catherine's life has been difficult. After the start of World War I in 1916, the Germans occupied her country, forcing her to flee to Issay with two children. In Issay, she began a hospital for typhus victims at her own expense. After her mother's death the Princess kept up the Orphans' Foundation even during the German occupation. The Russian government took over in 1949. In 1953 Princess Catherine escaped from behind the Iron Curtain.

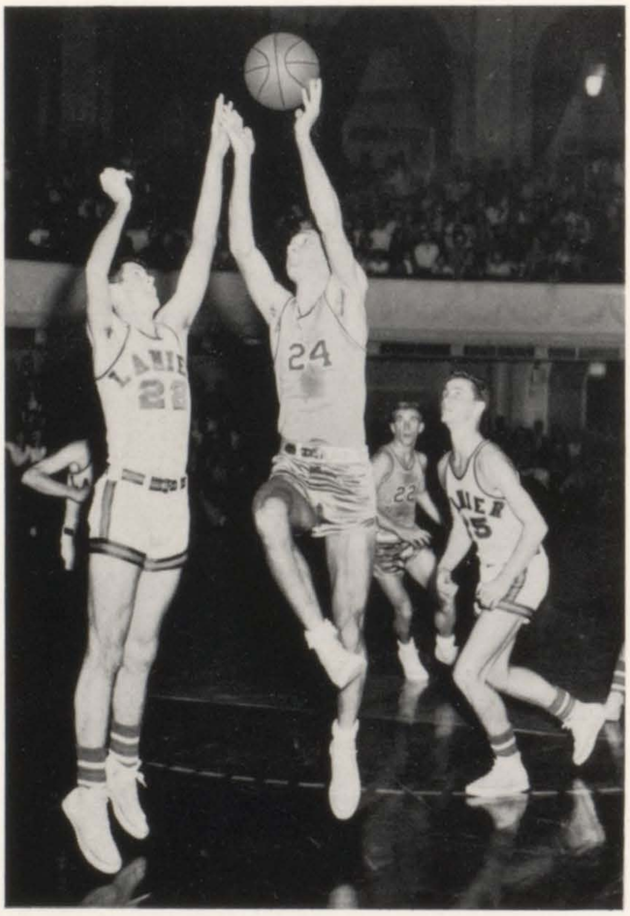
Patricia Weathers, Jim Griffin, Dianne Hummel, Phyllis Casey and Baughn Lassiter practice for the play.

RAM THE RIMESTERS

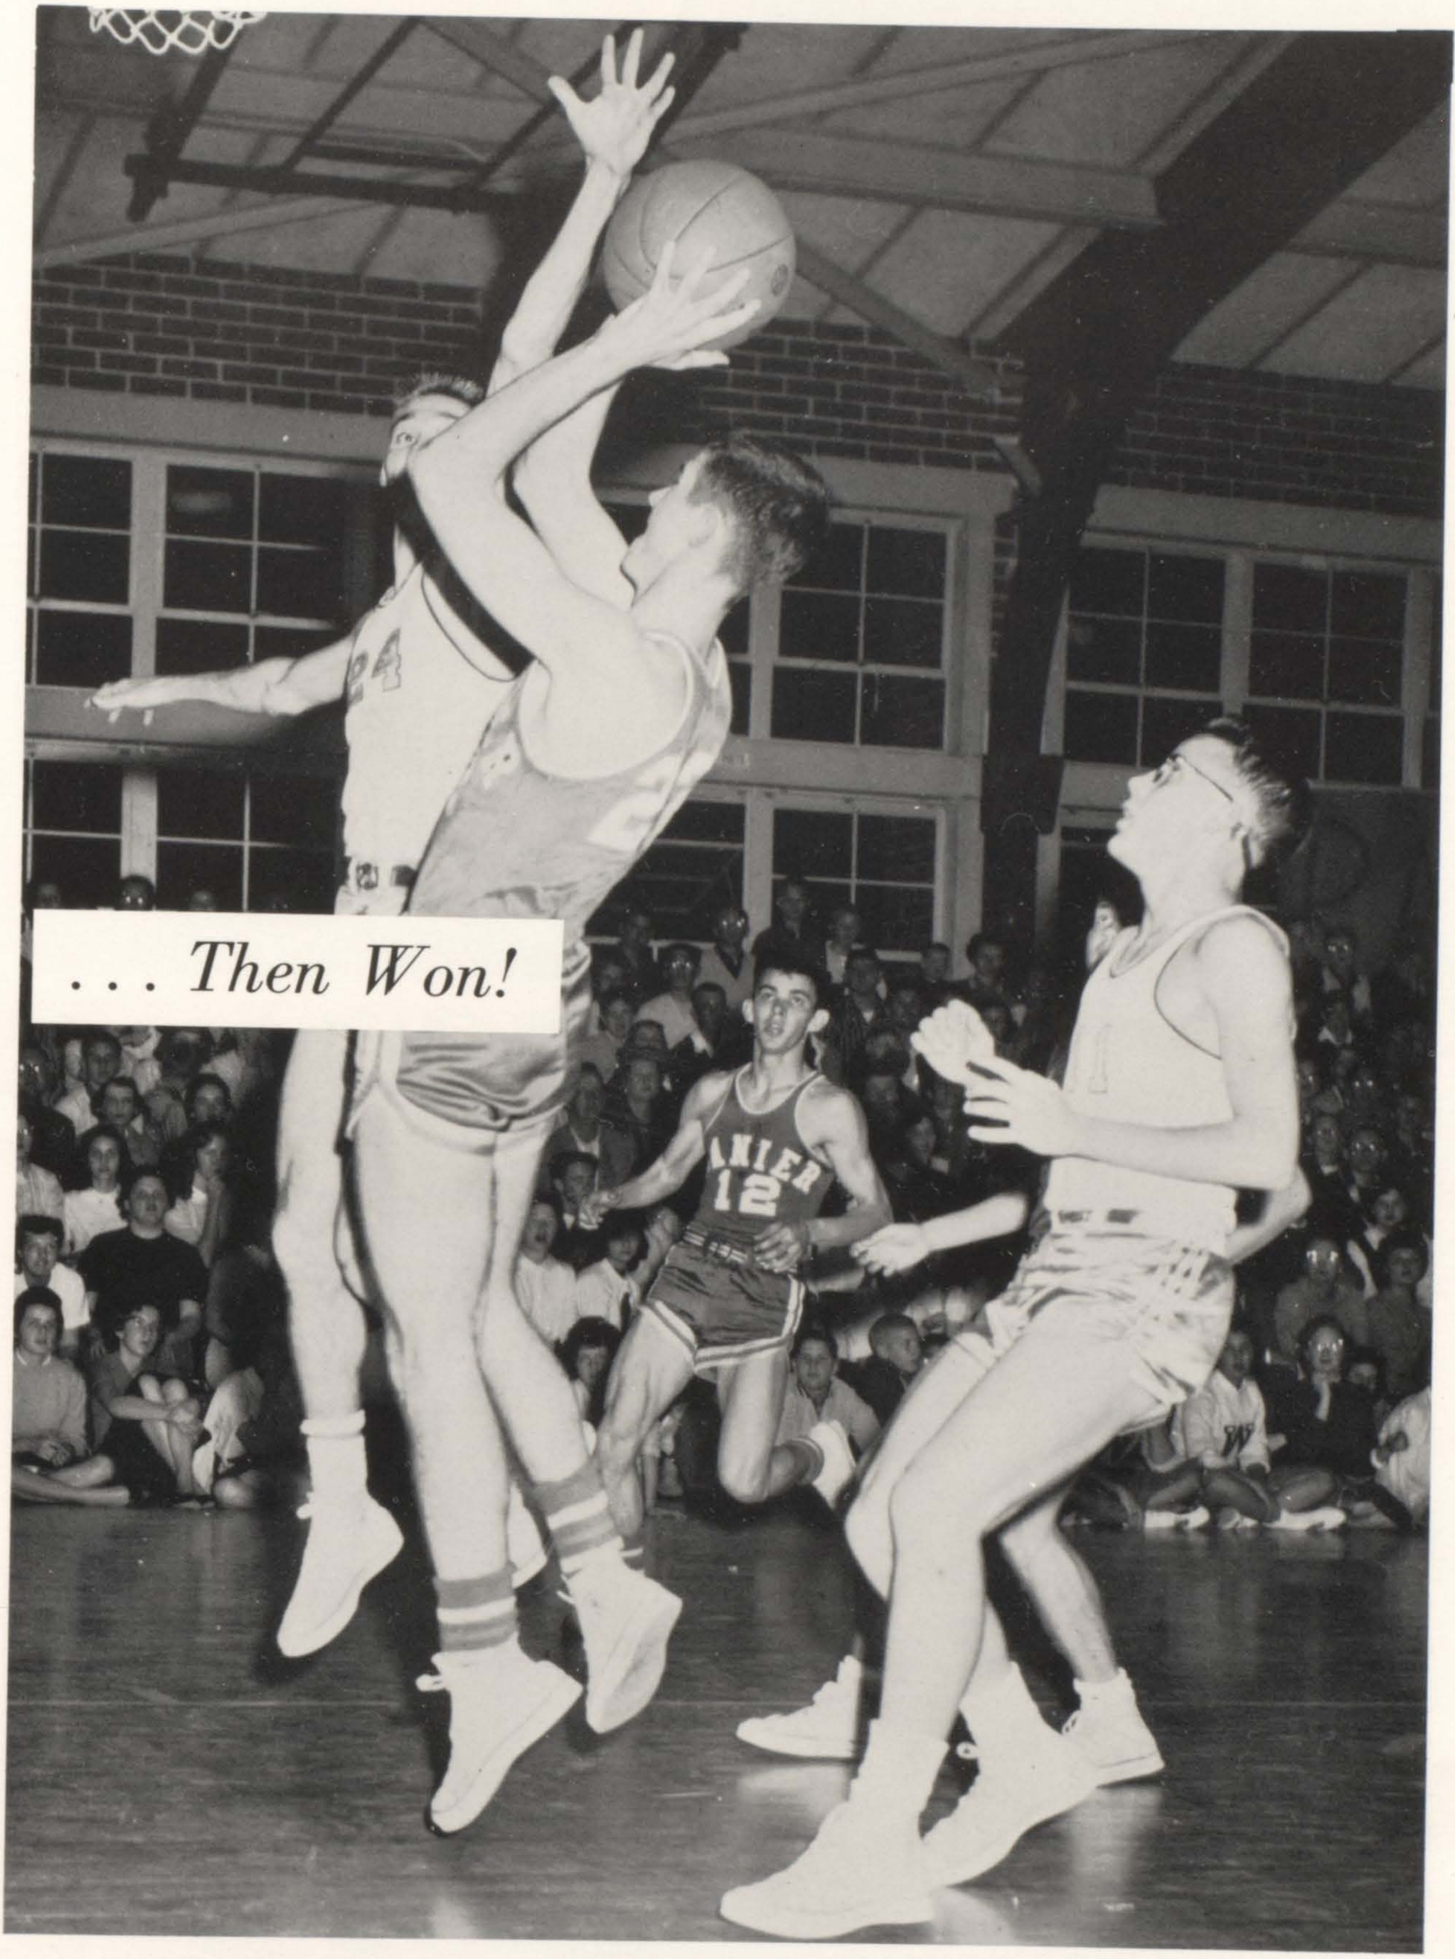
Discouraged fans line the stands as we lost our first basketball game to Lanier.

We Played Lanier and Lost . . .



Lanier's Hall blocks Tucker's shot as Goss and McBryant come in on the play.

Thompson guards Carr as Hall approaches.



. . . Then Won!

With Giles, Watson and Reid looking on, Tucker returns Hall's block as Willingham rolls to a 50-40 victory.

And All the Time, We Studied . . .

Mary Ruth Fain, Wynanne Polk, Phyllis Casey, and Sara Lee Vincent - McEvoy's Radio Announcers conduct their Saturday morning program over Station WNEX.

Judy Cranford measures hemline for Audrey Hall during Home Economics as Judy Adams works buttonhole in dress.

and Learned . . . and Worked . . . .

Models for the Booster Club fashion show during practice. FIRST ROW: Shaw, Spillers, Polk. SECOND ROW: Lawrence, Shelton, Miss Haddock, Stokes, Burnley, Windham, Higgins, Windham.

In Appreciation

The Ramscott staff takes great pleasure in expressing appreciation to those of you who have made this annual a success. Students of McEvoy and Willingham, this is your book - your life during the school year 1958-59.

Wherever fate leads you, we hope that this book will always be a reminder of the many varied events and activities shared by members of our two schools.
